

Understanding Insurance over age 65...

Understanding when and how to enroll in Medicare can be very overwhelming- add in there the questions on how plan for retiring in the future and each person needs a individual conversation. An opportunity to ask questions, understand processes and what to do if they still plan on working.

Your employer has acquired our services to assist you through the challenges of understanding Medicare. Regardless if it is for you, your spouse, a dependent or a loved one. We are here to help you understand and navigate Medicare.

Not everyone who is eligible for Medicare is ready to retire. So, we will help you understand the process and create a plan for when you are ready to retire and leave your employers health coverage.

In order for us to begin, the first step is yours- call and schedule an appointment with your dedicated advisor. During that appointment you will be able to ask questions and create a plan that will fit your needs.

We look forward to speaking with you soon!

If you are calling for a loved one- please let us know that as well. We are able to assist in a variety of ways to allow care giving to be less stressful! One of our qualified specialists will be able to assist you with senior resources as well!
